

November 18, 2022

Dear Friends:

Please join us for worship on Sunday, November 20th at 10:30 a.m. or click here to view our live-streamed worship service.

As we come to the end of our Christian year this Sunday is traditionally called “Christ the King” Sunday. Doug Spaner will share with us a reflection on Psalm 46, in which is found the famous line, “Be still and know that I am God.” The Ensemble will lead us in music, and I will be here leading worship. (You can’t get rid of me so soon after I got back from sabbatical!) I know we all enjoy Doug’s wisdom and we can look forward to a meaningful worship service.

Next week, the year starts over as Advent begins, preparing for the birth of the Christ. Our theme is “Outrageous Faith: Advent at RUC.” I hope you’ll consider joining us in person during Advent as you’re able, or online if you’re not.

Peace,

Valerie

In our Prayers

- We will celebrate the life of RUC member Marjorie Kearney this Tuesday, November 22 at 11:00 a.m. followed by a reception.
- Glenn and Hester Campbell remain in our hearts as Glenn is still in the U of A Hospital in frail health at 96 years.
- Sharon Hoekstra is now at MacTaggart Place Retirement Residence and her family have invited visits from our members. She is having a difficult journey following her brain surgery last spring. Speak to Valerie if you are called to respond to this invitation.
