This Sunday is the first Sunday in Lent: Encountering Jesus: Waypoints on the Journey. Our first stop is with Jesus alone in the wilderness, facing some of the profound temptations of being human. I hope you can join us as we embark on this journey toward the cross together.

You can read more about our Lenten journey and opportunities by clicking here.

Also, take a look at the new Spring edition of The Front Pew, our RUC quarterly newsletter. It's full of gems about our life in ministry at RUC!

Thanks to the Turkey Team for the Pancake Lunch last Sunday and to the youth for the lovely Spaghetti Dinner the week before. And thanks to all who have brought socks for our unhoused neighbours, and to the Outreach Committee for the "enlivening" sock toss.

See you on the road to Jerusalem,

Valerie

In our Prayers

- A prayer of gratitude this week that choir member Paul Fung came home from the hospital as he continues recovering from open heart surgery. We remain in prayer for him and his wife Janet and their family for the difficult road of healing ahead.
- Another prayer of gratitude for the numerous volunteers who helped make the large Memorial service and reception for Doug McDavid go so smoothly. Please continue to keep his wife Georgianna and their family in your hearts.
