This week's message

April 28, 2023

Spring is a time when signs of new life are all around us. We see the budding leaves on trees, ducklings swimming after their parents, and the grass greening with the help of gentle rains.

This Sunday we will come together for a whole community worship to celebrate creation and give thanks for all the opportunities we have to spend time in God's world. Our children have been working hard and you will enjoy the fruits of their labour with a Creation Art Gallery. Musically we will be led by the Ensemble, and hear a new anthem, "Sing to the Lord a New Song" composed and arranged specially for this service by Annika Schoenhardt.

There will be an opportunity during worship to stretch your legs and take a nature walk around the sanctuary and hopefully share your thoughts.

For those worshipping at home, artwork and photographs will be projected and you will be able to add your comments on our YouTube channel or by texting Carolyn at 780.445.9912 with a comment. (Please note the cell number will not be publicly projected). We hope to see you there.

See you Sunday,

Riverbend United Church
