A Lenten Journey at Riverbend United Church

February 23, 2024

A Note From Valerie:

On this second Sunday in Lent, we continue our series on "Living Prayer," exploring the variety of ways people pray. The Ensemble will lead us musically.

After a short reflection by me, I'll engage in a dialogue with our Care Coordinator, Holly Ruryk.
As Holly shares with us how she prays, we are all invited to consider what prayer is to us. How do YOU pray?

I hope through Lent we might discover that our very lives are prayer-- as connection with the divine, the earth, and one another.

This Sunday we will also have a Mission and Service moment, when those who wish are invited to bring special offerings forward to the "little church" in the front of the sanctuary as a way of honouring the significant events our lives this month. Any donations go to the "M & S" ministries of the general United Church of Canada.

Please take a moment to fill out our new Church Directory contact information card, either in person on Sunday or online by clicking here. The directory will only be shared with church members. It's good for us to know each other, and we have quite a lot of new people in our midst!

Have a blessed weekend,

Valerie
