Worship with us at Riverbend United Church

April 12, 2024

Dear friends:

The disciples are huddling together in the wake of Jesus' death. And then he shows up! Excuse me?

I have often been a "Thomas." You may recall his famous words: "Unless I see the mark of the nails in his hands, and put my finger in the mark of the nails and my hand in his side, I will not believe."

I say "often been a Thomas" because sometimes it's not like that. Sometimes, I have a tiny faith like a mustard seed that alone is enough, and doubt is carried away on the winds.

There is room in our faith journey for assurance and for doubt. It's all part of this amazing adventure called being human. I hope you can join us on Sunday as we journey with dear Thomas, honour our doubt, and celebrate the tiny seeds of faith.

Thank you to Matthew Schoenhardt for leading us last week in an inspiring and compelling rendering of the heart of the Gospel. If you missed it, you can find that service as well as the Easter Cantata on our YouTube Channel under the "Live" tab.

Warmly,

Valerie
