A note from Valerie

June 7, 2024

Somewhere out there in internet land is probably a joke that starts, "If Jesus were a hockey player..." I realize many of us are eager for the upcoming games. Whatever happens in game one, come Sunday we pause to give thanks, to re-set, to make ready for the coming week.

We will explore a rich gift of our Scriptures, Psalm 139. We'll also share in adult baptism and we'll recognize two of our young people who have just graduated from University.

The church picnic is also this Sunday after worship.

I hope you have a blessed weekend,

Valerie
