Dear Friends:

Driving into work this morning, I saw a woman walking alone along the road with a big smile on her face. I love seeing people smile, especially when they are alone! I always wonder what's going on in their minds that is causing their delight. And it never fails to bring a smile to my own face. Seeing the woman this morning reminded me of coming across a couple dancing at a bus stop a few years ago; the only music they had was the love in their hearts. That, too, made me smile!

There is much to smile at, for there is much to be grateful for. I am grateful for this church. We are blessed to be part of an active, healthy, vital community of faith. This Sunday we will receive new members into the congregation. I hope you can come and welcome them, perhaps offering a smile.

Have a lovely weekend,

Valerie
