Message from Riverbend United Church

October 24, 2025

Dear friends:

This Sunday, we will enjoy a whole community worship featuring the Ensemble and a reflection from Christine Ens. Throughout October, Valerie has shared her thoughts on joyfully sharing our time, talents and treasures, and we will conclude the month with sharing, in particular, food as our focus. We will hear the story of "Manna from Heaven," told in a Godly play style, with a second scripture, called "Rumbling Tummies," taken from Bob Hartman's Rhyming Bible. I wonder if you can guess which Bible story it is referring to? Finally, you are invited to bring either pasta or pasta sauce to the worship. The pasta and sauce will be used during the service (remaining unopened), which will then be donated to our food pantry. We hope that you can join us on Sunday either in person or online.

NOTE

- Thank you to everyone who provided turkeys and pies and helped set up and serve and clean up for the lovely fall feast last Sunday night. And thank you to the turkey team for coordinating this wonderful event.

IN OUR PRAYERS

- We had a baby! Congratulations to Jon Spaner and Jacqueline Laurin on the birth of Simon Douglas Laurin Spaner. New parents and baby and grandparents Doug and Jill Spaner are all doing well.
