Message from Riverbend United Church

December 26, 2025

Dear friends:

This week Carolyn Miller and Dawn Power will lead us in worship, this is what they have to say about this Sunday's service:

“Hopefully, you have followed the Christmas Trail posters around the church during this Advent season. During this worship service, we will watch the entire Christmas Story video beautifully told through LEGO animation, as well as sing some familiar carols. Please join us either in person or online as we give thanks and celebrate the birth of Jesus.

As it is the last Sunday of the month, our mission and service church will be in its usual place at the front of the church. Please consider bringing a few dollars to put in the church if you have had a special celebration during December.”

See you on Sunday,

Riverbend United Church
