Message from Rev. Valerie

April 5, 2026

Dear friends:

In the quiet of this morning, Easter comes again.

We remember the story of Jesus—
and the strange, enduring claim that even death did not have the final word.

Christ is risen.

In ways we may not fully understand,
life continues.
Love holds.
Something rises.

Today we gather with joy
to celebrate this mystery together.

Wherever this morning finds you,
may Easter speak hope and life to you.

Honouring the Rising,
Valerie
