Message from Rev. Valerie

June 5, 2026

Dear Friends,

This is Pride Sunday. As an Affirming Ministry of the United Church of Canada, we are committed to being explicit in our welcome of all, no matter what. We'll lean into the parable of the Good Samaritan with a contemporary spin as we explore what it means to offer the radical love of Christ. We'll also share at the Table in Holy Communion, so if you are joining us online, you may want to have a piece of bread and a cup nearby. Thanks to our Affirming Team for helping to lead this service.

Immediately following the service, we'll have a Congregational Meeting to elect the Official Board. All are welcome.

The following week, June 14, is Holy Humour Sunday. This is done in other United Churches, but we've never tried it. We need your help to make it happen! If you have a humorous (and tasteful!) story or joke or short video you'd like to share, sign up by this Sunday either in the Narthex or by emailing the church office. If it's a digital submission, send it in by Monday. Psalm 100 says "Come before God with laughter." There may just be some laugh-worthy sharings!

Have a great weekend,

IN OUR PRAYERS

- We share with Miranda Rocheleau and Davan Russell, otherwise known as "Quinn's parents," who were officially married at the church yesterday after being together for over 11 years.
- We share with Jim and Susan Schetzle in the joy of their son Ryan and his wife-to-be Ashley, who will be married this weekend.
