Message from Rev. Valerie

November 20, 2026

Dear Friends,

One of the most famous teachings of Jesus is, “Truly I tell you, just as you did it to one of the least of these brothers and sisters of mine, you did it to me.” It is one of his last teachings before he is arrested. This Sunday, Doug Spaner will reflect with us about this teaching and I look forward to hearing his wisdom. It’s called “Christ the King” Sunday, the last Sunday before the Christian year begins with Advent.

We will also celebrate the Sacrament of Baptism for Simon Spaner, child of Jon Spaner and Jacqueline Laurin. The Ensemble (the band) will be rolling out in full complement this Sunday to lead us in music.

It’s also Mission and Service Sunday so we’ll be invited to bring forward special offerings to the M & S fund, to honour events in our family’s life this month. The M & S fund helps us support local and global ministry and outreach partnerships of the United Church of Canada.

As a reminder, Christianity 101 begins this Sunday at 9:30 a.m. Whether you’re a long-time pew-sitter or brand new to a faith journey, you might enjoy the conversation. This week’s focus is The Bible: What is it and how do we read it today?

I hope you have a blessed weekend, and see you Sunday,

Valerie
